The Forum Plus Range

Made in Europe by Tarkett with a focus on both superior performance and appearance.

Forum Plus vinyl sheet flooring is available in authentic timber and concrete designs with high resistance to indentation, scratching and a realistic ultra matt surface finish.

The Forum plus range consists of five timber colours and three concrete colours all with a 0.7mm wear layer.

The durability combined with the underfoot comfort, waterproofness, ease of maintenance and installation makes Forum Plus the perfect choice for retail shop fit outs, education settings, healthcare and aged care.

These features also make Forum Plus the ultimate 'life proof' solution for high-wear residential settings such as rental properties, holiday accommodation and commission housing as well as in caravans, motorhomes and camper trailers.

Why Polystyl?

Beautiful and durable, Polystyl is not your average vinyl sheet flooring.

Design & Performance

Manufactured by Tarkett in Europe, all Polystyl flooring features authentic designs and high definition patterns.

- Available in beautiful stone, timber and concrete designs
- Extensive colour options
- Extra-long and extra-wide plank lengths available on select designs
- High resistance to indentation
- Wear layers provide durability and resistance to scratching
- Ultra matt surface effect for a natural and realistic finish
- High pattern repeats available
- High performance PUR surface treatment to prevent visual ageing and easy removal of scuff marks

Comfort

Comfort is Polystyl's range of textile and cushion-backed residential sheet vinyl and the commercial range, Forum Plus, with a compact construction.

- High impact sound reduction ratings (12db to 19db) on the four residential ranges Xpress, Origin, Agora and Lumina
- Softer and warmer underfoot than luxury vinyl tiles, laminate and ceramics
- Softer floors are safer floors for our young and elderly
- Outstanding sound insulation without the need for additional underlay with the four residential ranges, making them ideal for multi-level homes and apartments^

^ Data sheet should be approved by apartment building management prior to the purchase of the product

Wellbeing & Sustainability

Polystyl vinyl sheet flooring has been designed for healthy living.

- Manufactured with up to 30% recycled content
- Easy to clean with no deep grout joins or seams to collect dirt and dust build up
- Carries the British Allergy Foundation's seal of approval
- Phthalate-free technology for healthy indoor environments and improved air quality
